PREFACE TO SUPPLEMENT

The most gratifying reception which "Who's Who in India" met with fully assured me that, in undertaking the immense task of compiling a record of the Princes, Native Chiefs, Title-holders and Eminent Men of India, I was fully justified. The demand for such a work was imperative, and the book was eagerly sought after as soon as published. The large number of additional honours conferred by His Gracious Majesty at the Coronation Durbar necessitated the publication of a Supplementary Volume which would also contain a concise story of the historic visit of Their Imperial Majesties, our King-Emperor and Queen-Empress, to this land. This work is the result.

Again I have to tender my sincere and grateful thanks to the Indian Princes, Nobility and Title-holders who, by their hearty co-operation and ready assistance, have enabled me to accomplish what, unaided, would have been an impossible task. To the officers of Government, too, who have materially assisted the compilation of the book my respectful thanks are hereby tendered. As was remarked on the publication of the main work, my sole object in compiling "Who's Who in India" was to minister to the feelings of loyal and loving devotion to the Crown which are marked characteristics of my countrymen, and which have been so much in evidence since Their Majesties' gracious visit to India. If this modest endeavour on my part succeeds my labour will not have been in vain.

WHO'S WHO IN INDIA

SUPPLEMENT

THE ROYAL VISIT TO INDIA

On December 2nd, 1911, their Majesties the King-Emperor and the Queen-Empress arrived in Bombay by the Royal Yacht "Medina" and received a most enthusiastic reception.

Their Majesties were presented with an address of welcome by the Bombay Corporation, to which His Majesty made the following reply, which will live long in the memories of the Indian people:

"You have rightly said that I am no stranger among you, and I can heartily respond that I feel myself no stranger in your beautiful city. Six years ago I arrived, indeed, as a new-comer, but the recollection of your cordial and sympathetic greeting is still fresh in my memory. The wondrous aspect disclosed by the approach to your shores, the first glimpse of the palms rising as it were from the bosom of the sea, have not been forgotten, and have lost none of their fascination for me. From Bombay I set forth in 1905, encouraged by your affectionate welcome, to traverse at any rate a part of this vast country, and to strive to gain some knowledge of its people. Such knowledge as I acquired could not but deepen my sympathy with all races and creeds, and when through the lamented death of my beloved father I was called to the Throne of my ancestors, one of my first and most earnest desires was to revisit my good subjects in India.

"It is with feelings of no common emotion that I find myself here again to-day with the Queen-Empress at my side and that desire fulfilled. And I come with a heart full of gratitude that the anxiety due to a threatened scarcity in certain areas of the Presidency has, thanks to favourable and opportune rains, been happily dispelled, and that there is every prospect of your land being blessed with a good spring harvest.

"Your eloquent Address has recalled to me that Bombay was once the dowry of a British Queen. As such Humphrey Cook took it over 250 years ago, a mere fishing village. You, gentlemen, and your forerunners, have made it a jewel of the British Crown. I see again with joy the rich setting of its beautiful and stately buildings. I note also the less conspicuous, but also more profitable, improvements lately effected; but above all, I recognise with pride your efforts to heighten what must always be the supreme lustre of such a jewel as this, the peace, happiness, and prosperity of all classes of the citizens.

"From my heart I thank you for the generous reception accorded to the Queen-Empress and myself to-day. We earnestly pray that God's blessing may rest upon our Indian Empire and that peace and prosperity may be ever vouchsafed to its people."

His Majesty having read his speech, Lady Mehta presented a beautiful bouquet to Her Majesty. The members of the Bombay Corporation were then presented to the King-Emperor.

STATE ENTRY INTO DELHI

In accordance with His Majesty's gracious Proclamation of 22nd March, 1911, he made his State Entry into Delhi, accompanied by Her Majesty the Queen-Empress, on the morning of 7th December.

The Proclamation was:

"Whereas upon the death of our late Sovereign of happy memory, King Edward, upon the sixth day of May in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, we did ascend the Throne under the style and title of George the Fifth by the Grace of God King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India ; and whereas by Our Royal Proclamations bearing date the nineteenth day of July and the seventh day of November in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the first year of Our Reign, we did publish and declare Our Royal intention by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation upon the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven ; and whereas it is Our wish and desire to make known to all Our loving subjects within Our Indian Dominions that the said solemnity has so been celebrated, and call to Our Presence, Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors and others of Our officers, the Princes, Chiefs and Nobles of the Native States under Our protection, and representatives of all the Provinces of Our Indian Empire, now we do by this Royal Proclamation declare Our Royal intention to hold at Delhi on the twelfth day of December one thousand nine hundred and eleven an Imperial Durbar for the purpose of making known the said solemnity of Our Coronation, and We do hereby charge and command Our right trusted and well beloved counsellor, Baron Hardinge of Penshurst, Our Viceroy and Governor-General in India, to take all necessary measures in that behalf.

“ Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this twenty-second day of March in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven and in the first year of Our Reign.”

On alighting at the Selimgarh Bastion of Delhi Fort, Their Majesties received certain high officials who were presented to them on the platform ; Their Majesties then received the Ruling Chiefs, who were presented to them in the Fort. A procession was afterwards formed, and Their Majesties made their entry into the historic city of Delhi through streets and roads lined with troops and amid the acclamations of hundreds of thousands of their loving and loyal subjects. The procession, which included the Governors and Lieutenant-Governors of Provinces, and the Ruling Chiefs with their escorts, was a most brilliant spectacle.

The Hon'ble Sir John Jenkins presented an Address to Their Majesties as they arrived at the historic Ridge. This was on behalf of the Supreme Legislative Council. His Majesty replied as follows :

"In the name of the Queen-Empress and on my own behalf I heartily thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, the words of which have deeply touched us.

"They recall those countless messages of affectionate devotion which India, in common with all parts of my Dominions, greeted us on our Coronation in England, and which have been repeated by all classes and creeds of my Indian subjects since our arrival in your country.

"I know from my Governor-General what strength and support he receives from the wise experience of the members of his Legislative Council, the chosen representatives of British India.

"We much appreciate the welcome you offer us on behalf of its peoples. Rest assured that there is no wish nearer to our hearts than that, in the words of your Address, the Indian Empire may continue steadily to advance in the ways of peace, prosperity and contentment."

On the afternoon of the same day, and on the two succeeding days, His Majesty received the Indian Chiefs who came to do homage to him.

THE ALL INDIA MEMORIAL.

On the afternoon of Friday, December 8th, His Majesty proceeded, with the Queen-Empress, to unveil the statue of his late Majesty, Edward VII, which had been erected between the Fort and the Jumma Musjid, and the cost of which had been defrayed by subscriptions from all over India.

In reply to an Address read by His Excellency the Viceroy, His Majesty said :

"The Address which you have just read has touched my heart and awakened memories of what we all, and I most of all, owe to my dear father, the late King-Emperor. He was the first of my House to visit India, and it was by his command that I came six short years ago to this great and wonderful land. Alas! little did we then think how soon we should have to mourn his loss.

"You tell me that this Memorial represents the contributions, not only of a few who may have had the privilege of personal acquaintance with my father, but of thousands of his and my people in India. I am glad to know that the deep and abiding concern which he felt for India has met with so warm a response from the hearts of her children.

"I rejoice to think that this statue will stand a noble monument on a beautiful and historic site to remind generations yet unborn of your loyal affection and of his sympathy and trust, sentiments which, please God, always will be traditional between India and the members of my House."

On the afternoon of the next day, December 9th, Their Majesties attended the semi-final matches of the Durbar Polo Tournament, and the final match of the Durbar Football Tournament. On the same evening Their Majesties attended the Tattoo by the massed bands on the Polo Ground.

Sunday, December 10th, was duly observed in the Royal Camp. Their Majesties attended an open air service in the Military Camp.

On Monday, December 11th, His Majesty the King-Emperor presented new colours to eight British Regiments and two Indian Regiments, with all due ceremony. On the afternoon of the same day Their Majesties attended the final match in the Polo Tournament.

THE DURBAR.

On Tuesday, December, 12th, the Durbar was held on the site of Lord Lytton's Assemblage of 1877 and the Durbar of 1903. The Durbar Amphitheatre contained some twelve thousand seats and accommodated the Governors, Lieutenant-

Governors and other high officials, and the Ruling Chiefs and Durbaris from British India and the Native States. Facing the Amphitheatre was the spectators' mound, which accommodated fifty thousand persons. Seats for six thousand school children were reserved on this mound. Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Hardinge left their Camp shortly before Their Majesties, with a fitting escort, and were received with all the honours due to their exalted station on their arrival at the Amphitheatre. Punctually at 11-30 Their Imperial Majesties set out in an open state carriage from their Camp, with an escort of one British Cavalry Regiment, a Battery of Royal Horse Artillery, their Body-guard, the Imperial Cadet Corps and one Regiment of Indian Cavalry. Their Majesties were dressed in full state robes, His Majesty wearing an Imperial Crown especially made for the occasion, and Her Majesty wearing a magnificent tiara. Arrived at the Amphitheatre, Their Majesties were received with an Imperial salute of 101 guns, the twenty thousand troops paying the customary Royal honours. Their Majesties were then conducted to their Thrones by His Excellency the Governor-General. In immediate attendance on His Majesty were H. H. the Maharana of Udaipur, Ruling Chief in Waiting, and the five Aides-de-Camp,—H. H. the Maharaja of Gwalior, H. H. Maharaja Bahadur Sir Partap Singh of Idar (Maharaja Regent of Jodhpur), Colonel Nawab Sir Aslam Khan, G. C. I. E., H. H. the Nawab of Rampur, and H. H. the Maharaja of Bikaner.

His Majesty ordered the Master of Ceremonies, Sir Henry McMahon, to open the Durbar. The King-Emperor then made the following speech :

" It is with genuine feelings of thankfulness and satisfaction that I stand here to-day among you. This year has been to the Queen-Empress and myself one of many great ceremonies and of an unusual though happy burden of toil. But in spite of time and distance, the grateful recollections of our last visit to India have drawn us again to the land which we then learned to love, and we started with bright hopes on our long journey to revisit the country in which we had already met the kindness of a home.

"In doing so, I have fulfilled the wish expressed in my message of last July, to announce to you in person my Coronation celebrated on the 22nd of June in Westminster Abbey, when, by the Grace of God, the Crown of my Forefathers was placed on my head with solemn form and ancient ceremony.

"By my presence with the Queen-Empress I am also anxious to show our affection for the loyal Princes and faithful Peoples of India, and how dear to our hearts is the welfare and happiness of the Indian Empire.

"It was moreover, my desire that those who could not be present at the solemnity of the Coronation should have the opportunity of taking part in its commemoration at Delhi.

"It is a sincere pleasure and gratification to myself and the Queen-Empress to behold this vast assemblage and in it my Governors and trusty officials, my great Princes, the representatives of the Peoples, and deputations from the Military Forces of my Indian Dominions.

"I shall receive in person with heartfelt satisfaction the homage and allegiance which they loyally desire to render.

"I am deeply impressed with the thought that a spirit of sympathy and affectionate good-will unites Princes and People with me on this historic occasion.

"In token of these sentiments I have decided to commemorate the event of my Coronation by certain marks of my especial favour and consideration, and these I will later on to-day cause to be announced by my Governor-General to this assembly.

"Finally, I rejoice to have this opportunity of renewing in my own person those assurances which have been given you by my revered predecessors of the maintenance of your rights and privileges and of my earnest concern for your welfare, peace, and contentment.

"May the Divine favour of Providence watch over my People and assist me in my utmost endeavour to promote their happiness and prosperity.

"To all present, Feudatories and Subjects, I tender our loving greeting."

His Majesty's address was received with enthusiastic cheers from the vast assemblage.

MALIK UMAR HYAT KHAN, C. I. E., M. V. O.

The Homage having been paid, Their Majesties advanced in an imposing procession from the Durbar Shamiana to the Royal Pavilion. Here they were in full view of the fifty thousand spectators and the twenty thousand troops. Their Majesties were attended by Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Hardinge, His Highness the Duke of Teck, the Duchess of Devonshire, the Countess of Shaftsbury and the Hon'ble Venetia Baring; with the young Maharajas of Bharatpur and Jodhpur, the Maharaj. Kumar Himmat Singh of Idar, the Maharaj Kumar Sadul Singh of Bikanir, the grandson of the Maharaja of Orchha, and Sahibzada Wahidaz Zafar Khan of Bhopal as pages in attendance on the King-Emperor, and the Thakur Saheb of Palitana, Maharaj Kumar Gulab Singh of Rewa, Rajkumar Ramchandra Singh, Maharaj Mandhata Singh, both of Sailana, in attendance on Her Majesty. There was a pause while Their Majesties showed themselves in their Royal splendour to the crowded populace, then a stirring roll of drums and the massed bands sounded a summons to the Heralds, Major Peyton and Malik Umar Hayat Khan Tiwana, C. I. E., M. V. O. The former read the Royal Proclamation, which was as follows:

“Whereas, by Our Royal Proclamations bearing date the nineteenth day of July and the seventh day of November in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten in the first year of Our Reign, we did publish and declare Our Royal intention, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the Solemnity of Our Royal Coronation upon the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven;

“And Whereas, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, we were enabled to celebrate the said Solemnity upon Thursday, the 22nd June last;

“And Whereas, by Our Royal Proclamation bearing date the twenty-second day of March, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the first year of Our Reign, we did declare that it was Our wish and desire

Ourselves to make known to all Our loving subjects within Our Indian Dominions that the said Solemnity had been so celebrated, and to call to Our Presence, Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and other of Our Officers, the Princes, Chiefs, and Nobles of the Native States under Our Protection, and the representatives of the Provinces of Our Indian Empire;

"Now we do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, make announcement thereof and extend to all Our Officers, and to all Princes, Chiefs, and Peoples now at Delhi assembled Our Royal and Imperial Greeting and assure them of the deep affection with which we regard Our Indian Empire, the welfare and prosperity of which are and ever will be Our constant concern.

"Given at Our Court at Delhi, the twelfth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the second year of Our Reign."

The Assistant Herald, Malik Umar Hayat Khan Tiwana, then read an Urdu translation of the Proclamation. The reading was followed by loud and prolonged cheering, and it was further signalized by the massed bands playing the National Anthem, and the Artillery firing a salute of 101 guns, which was followed by a "feu de joie" from the troops. These salutes ended, His Excellency the Governor-General stood at the foot of the Throne and read the statement of Royal Boons which it had pleased the King-Emperor, after consultation with his Ministers and the Governor-General in Council, to grant to his Indian subjects.

The announcement was as follows :

THE ROYAL BOONS

"To all to whom these presents may come, by the command of His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fifth, by the Grace of God King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India,—I, his Governor-General, do hereby declare and notify the grants, concessions, reliefs and benefactions which His Imperial Majesty has been graciously pleased to bestow upon this glorious and memorable occasion.

"Humbly and dutifully submissive to His Most Gracious Majesty's will and pleasure the Government of India have resolved with the approval of His Imperial Majesty's Secretary of State to acknowledge the predominant claims of educational advancement on the resources of the Indian Empire and have decided in recognition of a very commendable demand to direct themselves to making education in India as accessible and wide as possible.

"With this purpose they propose to devote at once fifty lakhs to the promotion of truly popular education, and it is the firm intention of Government to add to the grant now announced further grants in future years on a generous scale.

"Graciously recognizing the signal and faithful services of his forces by land and sea the King-Emperor has charged me to announce the award of half a month's pay to all non-commissioned officers and men and reservists, both of his British Army in India and his Indian Army; to the equivalent ranks of the Royal Indian Marine; and to all permanent employés of departmental and non-combatant establishments paid from the Military Estimates whose pay may not exceed the sum of Rs. 50 monthly.

"Furthermore His Imperial Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain that from henceforth the loyal Native officers, men and reservists of his Indian Army shall be eligible for the grant of the Victoria Cross for valour: the membership of the Order of British India shall be increased during the decade following His Imperial Majesty's Coronation Durbar by fifty-two appointments in the first class, and that in mark of these historic ceremonies fifteen new appointments in the first class and nineteen new appointments in the second class shall forthwith be made. That from henceforth Indian officers of the Frontier Militia Corps and the Military Police shall be deemed eligible for admission to the aforesaid Order.

" That especial grants of land or assignments or remissions of land revenue, as the case may be, shall now be conferred on certain Native officers of His Imperial Majesty's Indian Army who may be distinguished for long and honourable service, and that the special allowances now assigned for three years only to the widows of deceased members of the Indian Order of Merit shall with effect from the date of this Durbar hereafter be continued to all such widows until death or re-marriage.

" Graciously appreciating the devoted and successful labours of his Civil Service, His Imperial Majesty has commanded me to declare the grant of half a month's pay to all permanent servants in the civil employ of Government whose pay may not exceed the sum of Rs. 50 a month.

" Further it is His Imperial Majesty's gracious behest that all persons to whom may have been or hereafter may be granted the title of Diwan Bahadur, Sardar Bahadur, Khan Bahadur, Rai Bahadur, Khan Saheb, Rai Saheb or Rao Saheb shall receive distinctive badges as a symbol of respect and honour; and that on all holders present or to come of the venerable titles of Mahamahopadyaya and Shams-ul-Ulama shall be conferred some annual pension for the good report of the ancient learning of India.

" Moreover in commemoration of this Durbar and as a reward for conspicuous public service certain grants of land free of revenue tenable for the life of the grantee or in the discretion of the local administration for one further life shall be bestowed or restored in the North-Western Frontier Province and in Baluchistan.

" In his gracious solicitude for the welfare of his loyal Indian Princes His Imperial Majesty has commanded me to proclaim that from henceforth no nazarana payments shall be made upon succession to their States : and sundry debts owing to the Government by the non-jurisdictional estates in Kathiawar and Gujarat and also by the Bhumia Chiefs of Mewar will be cancelled and remitted in whole or in part under the orders of the Government of India.

HOMAGE OF RULING CHIEFS

"In token of his appreciation of the Imperial Service Troops certain supernumerary appointments in the Order of British India will be made in the exercise of his Royal and Imperial clemency and compassion.

"His Most Excellent Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain that certain prisoners now suffering the penalty of the law for crimes and misdemeanours shall be released from imprisonment and that all those civil debtors not in prison, whose debts may be small and due not to fraud but to real poverty, shall be discharged and that their debts shall be paid.

"The persons by whom, and the terms and conditions on which these grants, concessions and benefactors shall be enjoyed, will be hereafter declared.

"GOD SAVE THE KING-EMPEROR."

A flourish of trumpets followed this wonderful list of favours, and the Herald, raising his helmet, called for three cheers for His Majesty then three more for the Queen-Empress. The response to these welcome requests was astounding, and the cheering could be heard for miles.

Their Imperial Majesties then returned in stately procession to the Durbar Shamiana. The King-Emperor, standing in front of his Throne, made the following pronouncement, before which all previous utterances by His Majesty seemed cast in the shade.

THE ROYAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

"We are pleased to announce to Our people that on the advice of Our Ministers tendered after consultation with Our Governor-General in Council, We have decided upon the transfer of the seat of the Government of India from Calcutta to the ancient capital of Delhi, and simultaneously and as a consequence of that transfer, the creation at as early a date as possible of a Governorship for the Presidency of Bengal, of a new Lieutenant-Governorship in Council administering the areas of Behar, Chota Nagpur and Orissa and of a Chief Commissionership of Assam, with such administrative changes and redistribution of boundaries as Our Governor-General in Council with the approval of Our Secretary of State for India in Council may in due course determine. It is Our earnest desire that these changes may conduce to the better administration of India and the greater prosperity and happiness of Our beloved people."

This announcement was received with redoubled enthusiasm. The Master of Ceremonies, Sir Henry McMahon, then obtained His Majesty's permission to close the Durbar. Again the massed bands played the National Anthem, which all present seemed to join in singing. The escort and Royal carriage then entered the arena, and Their Majesties departed, leaving all present amazed and intensely impressed by the greatness of the ceremony they had witnessed and the gorgeous setting in which such an epoch-making event had taken place.

RECEPTION OF VOLUNTEER AND INDIAN OFFICERS

On the morning following the Durbar, His Majesty held a reception at his camp, when the Officers of the Volunteer Corps in India and the Indian Officers of His Majesty's Army in India were presented. With the latter were a number of Sub-Assistant Surgeons.

THE ROYAL GARDEN PARTY

On the afternoon of December 13th, Their Majesties gave a garden party in the Fort to a large number of European and Indian guests. That as many as possible of his Indian subjects should be gratified with a sight of their Sovereign, His Majesty, with his Royal Consort, graciously made their appearance during the afternoon at the historic Jarokha in the Masumum Burj, where immense crowds who had come to visit the Badshahi Mela passed before the Royal presence. A military tattoo was given at the Mela at sunset by the massed bands, and a display of fireworks took place. Hundreds of thousands of Their Majesties' humbler subjects thus had the supreme pleasure of participating in the universal rejoicings and returned to their homes in all parts of the country satisfied that they had indeed seen their Emperor and Empress.

THE REVIEW

The great feature of December 14th was the Review by His Majesty of nearly fifty thousand troops which had assembled in Delhi. These comprised forty-five battalions of Infantry, thirteen regiments of Cavalry and one hundred and fourteen guns. The Commander-in-Chief, His Excellency General Sir O'Moore Creagh, V. C., G. C. B., was in command. The Review was a most brilliant function, and His Majesty subsequently sent a message to the troops expressing his profound satisfaction with their appearance and evolutions.

THE INVESTITURE

One of the most impressive ceremonies during the Durbār period was the Investiture which was held by His Majesty on the evening of 14th December. The Knights Grand Commanders, the Knights Grand Cross, the Knights Commanders and the Companions and Members of the various Orders were present in their respective robes and insignia. As soon as Their Majesties had taken their Thrones and the proceedings had been formally opened, a pleasant and gratifying surprise awaited the spectators of this superb spectacle. Her Majesty the Queen-Empress, leaving her Throne, retired, shortly afterwards reappearing in the robes of the Order of the Star of India. Her Majesty proceeded to do homage to the King-Emperor, who then, in the usual manner, created her a Knight Grand Commander of the Order of the Star of India. Her Majesty then resumed her Throne, and the Master of Ceremonies then introduced the Knights Grand Commanders and Knights Grand Cross to be invested, afterwards the Knights Commanders and Knights Bachelors, followed by the other recipients of titles and honours. Each, on being introduced, did reverence on bended knee, and kissed his Majesty's hand on rising after being invested with the badge of his new distinction. The Imperial Cadet Corps was present as a guard of honour. The ceremony was a most memorable one, and impressed all who were privileged to witness it.

THE IMPERIAL CITY

On the morning of 15th December an unexpected ceremony was performed in the Government of India Camp, when Their Majesties graciously laid the stones which are to serve not merely as lasting and visible memorials of the Royal visit, but are the foundation stones of the new Imperial Capital announced by His Majesty at the Durbar. The ceremony was one of full state, and was again a brilliant spectacle.

The stones were laid with the usual ceremony, His Majesty laying one, and Her Majesty the other. The conclusion of the ceremony was marked by cheers for Their Majesties, and the usual salutes.

THE POLICE PARADE

Later on the same morning His Majesty reviewed some 2,700 Police with their officers, and gave his Police Medal to the officers and men selected to receive it. The parade was in command of the Inspector-General of Police, Punjab. Having inspected the men, His Majesty presented his Police Medals. Before leaving the parade ground, His Majesty expressed his great satisfaction with the police force, congratulating the Inspector-General upon the very smart and workmanlike appearance of the men on parade and directing him to convey to the men the Royal thanks for their successful work. On the afternoon of the same day Their Majesties were present at the Military Tournament and Point-to-Point Races.

HER MAJESTY'S PURDAH PARTY

On the morning of 13th December Her Majesty the Queen-Empress held a Purdah Party, at which over one hundred of the leading Maharanis, Ranis and other ladies of India were present. Her Majesty conversed freely with her guests in the most kindly manner, and the distinguished ladies departed absolutely delighted with their reception. On this occasion, as at other times when appearing in public in India, Her Majesty wore the magnificent emerald brooch presented to her on the previous Saturday by the Maharanis of India, and Her Majesty in thanking them for their gift made the following reply :

"The beautiful spirit of your welcome affects me deeply, and I trust that those who meet me here to-day will themselves accept and convey to the sisterhood of this great Empire my warm thanks for their gentle greeting of sincere homage. I desire to assure you all of my ever-increasing solicitude for the happiness and welfare of those who live 'within the walls'.

"The pages of history have set forth what splendid influences for good can be brought to bear in their homes by the women of India, and the annals of its noble races are coloured by acts of devoted fealty and magnificent service as the fruits of the lessons instilled by mothers in the hearts and minds of their children. I have learnt with deep satisfaction of the evolution which is gradually but surely taking place among the inmates of the purdah, and I am convinced that you all desire to encourage education among your children so that they may grow up fitted to become useful and cultivated companions for their future husbands.

"The jewel you have given me will ever be very precious in my eyes, and, whenever I wear it, though thousands of miles of land and sea separate us, my thoughts will fly to the homes of India and bring back again and again this happy meeting and recall the love your tender hearts have yielded to me. Your jewel shall pass to the future generations as an Imperial Heirloom, and shall always stand as the token of the first meeting of the English Queen with the ladies of India. I thank you for your congratulations and for the good wishes expressed by you towards the King-Emperor and myself, and join my prayers to yours for the strength, unity, and well-being of the Empire."

THE STATE DEPARTURE FROM DELHI

On Saturday, 16th December, Their Imperial Majesties made their State Departure from Delhi. In the morning the Ruling Chiefs present in Delhi were, at the special desire of His Majesty, assembled in the Audience Chamber of the Royal Camp to take leave of Their Majesties. This function concluded, the Royal procession set out for Selimgarh station. The streets were, as at the State Entry, lined with troops, behind whom were standing hundreds of thousands of the loving subjects of Their Majesties, who had assembled to bid them farewell. Their Majesties drove in an open state carriage, and were escorted by a British Cavalry Regiment, a Battery of Royal Horse Artillery, the Imperial Cadet Corps and an Indian Cavalry Regiment, and were attended by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and Staff, and preceded by the Herald and Assistant Herald. As the royal procession entered the Fort, a salute of 101 guns was fired. The assembled populace cheered most heartily, and the enthusiasm was remarkably spontaneous. At Selimgarh station Their Majesties were received by His Excellency the Governor-General, the heads of Local Governments, the Metropolitan of India, the Chief Justice of Bengal, the Naval Commander-in-Chief, the Members of the Supreme Council and the Durbar Committee, headed by their President, Sir John Hewett, G. C. S. I. After taking leave of these officials, His Majesty entered his train, and proceeded to Nepal.

Her Majesty the Queen then entered her train, and set out for Agra.

THE KING-EMPEROR IN NEPAL

His Majesty arrived at Bikna Thoria Station on the 18th December, and was met by the Prime Minister, His Excellency Maharaja Sir Chandra Shamsher Jung, G.C.S.I., G.C.B., and his sons, with other officials of the Nepal Durbar. By the kindly forethought of the late King of Nepal, who expired only a few days prior to His Majesty's visit to the State, and who had on his deathbed requested that the arrangements made for His Majesty's visit should in nowise be interfered with, the tour proceeded as arranged.

The excellent sport enjoyed by the King-Emperor and the members of his suite who accompanied him was only equalled by the splendid hospitality of Sir Chandra Shamsher Jung, and the personal care and attention of himself, his sons and the Nepalese officials. Nothing was left undone that could contribute to the comfort and contentment of their distinguished guest, and at each of the camping grounds the arrangements were perfect. The shooting-boxes were simply yet luxuriously furnished, and provided with electric light, and the tents for the suite were in keeping. So great was the attention paid to the comfort of the whole party that the shooting-box and camp at Khasra were the exact replica in design, furniture, appointments, etc., of those at Sukhibhar. But for the change in the surrounding scenery no one would have known that the two camps were not one and the same. The bag of 39 tiger, 18 rhino and 4 bear shows that big game was abundant in the forest-area shot through. His Imperial Majesty shot with wonderful accuracy and 21 tiger and several rhino fell to his rifle. It was with deep regret that His Imperial Majesty and those who had shared in the sport and hospitality provided, said good-bye to their hosts. The shooting had been under ideal conditions and no untoward incident of any kind occurred to mar the enjoyment of the Royal party.

THE QUEEN EMPRESS' TOUR

After a quiet visit to Agra, where Her Majesty stayed at the Circuit House and visited the Taj Mahal and other places of note, Her Majesty and suite left for Jaipur on December 20th. Her Majesty arrived at Jaipur at 5 P. M. the same day, and was received by His Highness the Maharaja of Jaipur. In the evening Her Majesty's dinner party at the Residency was attended by the Resident, the Hon'ble Nawab Sir Faiyaz Ali Khan, and others.

The next afternoon His Highness the Maharaja paid a visit to Her Majesty, after which the Queen entered a motor car and started for the old Palace of Jotwara which has recently been repaired. To the surprise of every one His Highness took his seat in another motor and followed Her Majesty. His faithful subjects had never before seen their ruler in one of these modern conveyances. The expedition proved a great success. Her Majesty and party had tea at Jotwara and then the Queen-Empress and the Maharaja were entertained by a performance of trained birds. Her Imperial Majesty had intended going in a bullock cart to see the netting of black buck, but dusk was coming on and she was dissuaded. Nevertheless, she insisted on having her ride in the bullock cart as a new experience and seemed greatly to enjoy the experience. Her Majesty was in excellent spirits and evidently greatly pleased with her reception at Jaipur and with the entertainments provided for her.

On the 21st December Her Majesty left Jaipur for Ajmere, where she visited many historic sites. On December 23rd, Her Majesty proceeded from Ajmere to Bundi by motor car. On the way Her Imperial Majesty visited the sites of the memorial to King Edward and the monument to Sir Curzon Wyllie, stopping also before the grounds of the Mayo College where the students had assembled to make their salutations. Her Imperial Majesty was received at the Satur gateway, six miles from Bundi, by H. H. the Maharao Raja of Bundi, and by Major Peacock, both of whom attended her to the Imperial Camp.

Next morning the Queen-Empress drove with her suite in attendance to the Fort and Palace at Bundi, through which the Maharao Raja had the honour of conducting Her Imperial Majesty. Thence she proceeded by motor, still attended by the Maharao Raja, to the Sar Bagh, Shikar Burj and Phul Sagar, returning to the camp for luncheon. At 2-30 P. M. the Maharao Raja came to take leave of Her Imperial Majesty who afterwards left Bundi by motor for Kotah.

At the border of the State of Kotah, some five miles from the city, Her Imperial Majesty was received by H. H. the Maharao of Kotah at the head of a body of his troops, and by the Political Agent, both of whom attended her to the Agency, which had been prepared for her reception.

On December 26th, the Queen-Empress drove to the Fort and Palace escorted by the State troops of Kotah, under the personal command of H. H. the Maharao. His Highness had the honour of conducting Her Majesty over the buildings. In the afternoon Her Imperial Majesty visited Abhera, under the personal guidance of the Maharao. The Maharao had the honour to offer a peshkash, consisting of elephants, horses, jewels and rich fabrics, which Her Imperial Majesty was graciously pleased to inspect and to remit.

The Queen-Empress, with her suite in attendance, went on December 27th to a picnic which had been arranged for Her Imperial Majesty by the Maharao.

Her Imperial Majesty, attended by the whole of her suite, left Kotah by train for Calcutta on 28th December, at noon. The escort and the guard of honour were furnished by the Kotah State troops, and H. H. the Maharao, with his principal Sardars, was in attendance at the station to take leave of Her Imperial Majesty. During the stay of the Imperial train at Goona, the 38th Central India Horse had the honour to pass in review (mounted) before the Queen-Empress, after which the officers of the Regiment had the honour to entertain Her Imperial Majesty at tea.

THEIR MAJESTIES IN CALCUTTA

On Saturday, 28th December, Their Majesties arrived in Calcutta by train. They proceeded from Howrah terminus to Prinsep's Ghat by steamer. On landing at the Ghat they were received by His Excellency the Viceroy and the high officials of Government. They received the homage of the Executive Council of Bengal, the Ruling and Feudatory Chiefs, and certain of the Nobility, also deputations from public bodies—commercial, educational and municipal. In reply to the Address of Welcome of the Calcutta Municipality His Majesty graciously said :

"I thank you warmly on behalf of the Queen-Empress and myself for the assurances of loyalty and devotion on the part of the Corporation and citizens of the City of Calcutta, to which your Address gives expression. We are deeply touched by your kindly reference to my beloved father's stay in your city and by your affectionate allusion to our own visit here six years ago. We can never forget the cordial welcome given us on that occasion, while the sympathetic interest in our Indian Empire which the first sight of this great city inspired has in no way abated.

"It is a source of great pleasure to us to revisit Calcutta and to see for ourselves evidence of your progress and prosperity.

"The changes in the administration of India, resulting from the announcement made by me at the great Durbar at Delhi, will affect to a certain extent Calcutta. But your city must always remain the premier city of India. Its population, its importance as a commercial centre and great emporium of trade, its splendid historic traditions, all combine to invest Calcutta with an unique character which should preserve to it a pre-eminent position.

"At the same time, the status of the Province of which Calcutta is the capital has been enhanced by the creation of a Presidency of Bengal, and I feel confident that under the wise administration of a Governor-in-Council the new Presidency will enjoy increased prosperity with the blessing of tranquillity and order.

"I know that you cherish ambitions that India will one day become a great manufacturing as well as an agricultural country. I have watched with keen interest the progress of your business enterprise, and the success which has attended your commercial energy will affect more and more the youth of this country to regard commerce as a distinguished and honourable profession."

THEIR MAJESTIES' STATE DEPARTURE FROM DELHI

"I thank you for your kind wishes and prayers. It shall ever be our earnest endeavour to promote the welfare of our Indian Empire, and we fervently hope that the years as they pass will ever strengthen the feeling of warm attachment that exists between my house and my Indian people."

On 6th January His Majesty received the Senate of the Calcutta University. In reply to their Address His Majesty said:

"I recall with pleasure the occasion on which, six years ago, I received from the University of Calcutta the Honorary Degree of a Doctor of Law, and I am glad to have an opportunity to-day of showing my deep and earnest interest in the higher education of India. It is to the Universities of India that I look to assist in that gradual union and fusion of the culture and aspiration of Europeans and Indians on which the future well-being of India so greatly depends. I have watched with sympathy the measures that from time to time have been taken by the Universities of India to extend the scope and raise the standards of instruction. Much remains to be done. No University is now-a-days complete unless it is equipped with teaching faculties in all the more important branches of the sciences and the arts, and unless it provides ample opportunities for research. You have to conserve the ancient learning and simultaneously to push forward Western science. You have also to build up character, without which learning is of little value. You say that you recognize your great responsibilities. I bid you God-speed in the work that is before you. Let your ideals be high and your efforts to pursue them unceasing and, under Providence, you will succeed.

"Six years ago I sent from England to India a message of sympathy. To-day in India I give to India the watchword of hope. On every side I trace the signs and stirrings of new life. Education has given you hope; and through better and higher education you will build up higher and better hopes. The announcement was made at Delhi by my command that my Governor-General in Council will allot large sums for the expansion and improvement of education in India. It is my wish that there may be spread over the land a net-work of schools and colleges, from which will go forth loyal and manly and useful citizens, able to hold their own in industries and agriculture and all the vocations in life. And it is my wish, too, that the homes of my Indian subjects may be brightened and their labour sweetened by the spread of knowledge, with what follows in its train, a higher level of thought, of comfort, and of health. It is through education that my wish will be fulfilled, and the cause of education in India will ever be very close to my heart.

"It is gratifying to me to be assured of your devotion to myself and to my House, of your desire to strengthen the bonds of union between Great Britain and India, and of your appreciation of the advantages which you enjoy under British Rule. I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address."

On Monday morning January 8th, the Royal visit to Calcutta came to an end with stately ceremonial. At Prinsep's Ghat the Hon'ble Mr. Slacke, Member of Council, Bengal, read an Address of Farewell, to which His Majesty replied in a voice husky with emotion. He said:

"The Queen-Empress and I are deeply moved by the words of your Address. And they are not empty words. They have been amply and visibly proved by the enthusiastic reception accorded to us on our arrival here; and no less by the affectionate demonstrations with which we have been greeted everywhere and by all classes in Calcutta and its surrounding neighbourhood.

"For the remainder of our lives we shall remember with feelings of pride and emotion the stirring experience of these last eight days; we shall recall the warm-hearted greeting extended to us on our arrival in your Capital, and the sight of those patient and sympathetic multitudes which had assembled from all parts of the Province to testify their loyalty and devotion to my Throne and person. And I am gratified by the assurances given in your Address that these outward proofs of allegiance and affection reflect the general sentiments of your fellow-subjects throughout the length and breadth of North-Eastern India.

"Nor shall we forget the stirring scenes and brilliant displays which have been so successfully organised and carried out to celebrate our visit.

"The people of Bengal offer us as a farewell gift their 'overflowing love and gratitude'. Rest assured that the Queen-Empress and I could ask for nothing more precious to us and to our children. We take it back to them to be cherished by them as a priceless heirloom.

"Our hearts are too full to express adequately our gratitude for all you have done to welcome us at home amongst you.

"In bidding you farewell, the Queen-Empress and I fervently pray that all my subjects in Bengal, of whatever race or creed, united by the ties of sympathy and brotherly love, may, under the Divine guidance, ever strive towards the advancement of their common happiness, contentment and general well-being."

THEIR MAJESTIES AT NAGPUR

On 9th January, Nagpur had the honour of a visit from Their Imperial Majesties. The special train carrying Their Majesties arrived there at 2-15 P.M. The Chief Commissioner, Sir Reginald Craddock, introduced the General Commanding the Jubbulpur Division, the Lord Bishop, the three Judicial Commissioners, the Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner, Sir Gangadhar Rao Chitnavis, President of the Municipal Committee, the members of the Viceroy's Legislative Council representing the Central Provinces and Berar, the Hon'ble Mr. M. B. Dadabhoy, and others. Their Majesties then motored to the Fort at a very slow pace, amidst cheers. Their Majesties, after inspecting the Fort, motored back to the station where they thanked the Chief Commissioner, the General Commanding Jubbulpore Brigade, the President of the Municipal Committee and the Deputy Commissioner for the excellent arrangements that had been made for their reception. They left amidst loud cheers for Bombay at 3-15 P.M.

FAREWELL TO INDIA

Their Majesties arrived in Bombay on the morning of December 10th. They at once drove to the Pavilion at Apollo Bunder which had been prepared for the final ceremony of their departure. On the way the streets were again lined with most enthusiastic throngs, eager to see their King-Emperor and Queen-Empress, who had had such a triumphal tour through Northern India. An Address was presented by Sir Richard Lamb on behalf of the Bombay Presidency, to which His Majesty was pleased to reply as follows:

"I thank you sincerely on behalf of the Queen-Empress and myself for the kind and generous terms of the Address of Farewell which you present in the name of the people of the Bombay Presidency.

"The cordial welcome which we received on our arrival in your Capital was the prelude to that display of warm hearted loyalty which has characterized every stage of our progress during the past five weeks. And now we have listened with mingled feelings of gratification and sorrow to your touching words of farewell and God-speed, and your hopeful forecast as to the benefits which India will derive from this visit deepens our thankfulness at having accomplished the earnest wish of our hearts. It has given me infinite pleasure to be once more among my faithful subjects in India, and the Queen-Empress and I have been touched beyond words by the genuine love and devotion towards us which we feel have entered into the spirit of the people. Our one and only cause of regret during these past happy weeks has been our inability to stay longer in this country and to visit the ancient Presidency of Madras and the States of the many Chiefs who have offered us their generous hospitality. On leaving the shores of India we carry lasting memories of experiences made pleasant by every means that thoughtful care and affectionate regard could devise.

"We fervently trust that our visit may, by God's grace, conduce to the general good of the people of this great continent whose interests and well-being will always be as near and as dear to me as those of the millions of my subjects in other quarters of the globe.

“It is a matter of intense satisfaction to me to realize how all classes and creeds have joined together in the true-hearted welcome which has been so universally accorded to us. Is it not possible that the same unity and concord may for the future govern the daily relations of their private and public life? The attainment of this would indeed be to us a happy outcome of our visit to India.

“To you, the representatives of Bombay, who have greeted us so warmly on our arrival and departure, I deliver this our message of loving farewell to the Indian Empire! May the Almighty ever assist me and my successors in the earnest endeavour to promote its welfare and to secure to it the blessings of prosperity and peace.”

After the King had made his speech various officials were presented to Their Majesties, also H. H. the Maharaja of Kolhapur and H. H. the Begum of Bhopal.

THEIR MAJESTIES' DEPARTURE

Vociferous cheers were raised as Their Majesties left in a launch for the “Medina.” The battleships in the harbour fired a Royal salute.

On board the Royal Yacht Their Majesties gave a luncheon party before leaving, and H. H. the Maharao Raja of Bundi was afterwards invested with the insignia of a Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order.

MESSAGE TO MR. ASQUITH

His Majesty the King telegraphed as follows to Mr. Asquith, the Prime Minister of Great Britain, on 10th January.

“Before leaving India on our homeward voyage, I am sure that you, as the head of my Government, will be glad to know that from all sources, private and public, I gather that my highest hopes have been realized and that the success of our visit has exceeded all expectations, not only in Bombay, Delhi and Calcutta, but in every other part of the country where the Queen and I have been. All classes, races and creeds have united in receiving us with unmistakable signs of enthusiasm and affection.

"The magnificent display at the Durbar was the outcome of wise and well-considered plans, brilliantly carried out, through the untiring efforts of the Viceroy and those working under him.

"During our pleasant visit to the Viceroy, all Calcutta combined in doing everything possible for our comfort and enjoyment. I rejoice that, thanks to the mutual confidence between me and my people at Home, I have been enabled to fulfil the wish of my heart. This satisfaction will be still greater if time proves that our visit has conduced to the lasting good of India and of the Empire at large."

PATIALA—HIS HIGHNESS FARZAND-I-KHAS-I-DAULAT-I-INGLISHIA MANSUR-I-ZAMAN AMIR-UL-UMARA MAHARAJADHIRAJA RAJESHWAR SRI MAHARAJA-I-RAJAGAN SIR BHUPINDER SINGH MAHINDER BAHADUR, G.C.I.E., Maharaja of—a Ruling Chief, was invested by His Majesty with the insignia of Knight Grand Commander of the Order of the Indian Empire on the occasion of the Imperial Durbar at Delhi on 12th December, 1911. A biography of His Highness will be found in Part III, page 4; further particulars of the ancestors of His Highness are as follows. The friendly political relations of Patiala State with the British Government began in 1804 during, the rule of Maharaja Saheb Singh, when General Lord Lake passed through the State in pursuit of Jaswant Rao Holkar, and on being assured by the Maharaja of his friendship, Lord Lake wrote to him under his own signature and seal in the following terms :

"Whereas you have declared to be a staunch friend of the Kingdom, therefore the country at present in your possession shall continue to remain as it is, and no tribute shall ever be demanded."

These relations were subsequently cemented by Lord Minto's Proclamation of 1809. Maharaja Saheb Singh succeeded at his death in 1813 by Maharaja Karam Singh, who rendered aid to the Government with his troops during the Gurkha War of 1814. In the second battle of Bharatpur in 1827 the Maharaja helped the Government substantially, and gave a loan of twenty lakhs; again during the Afghan War in 1839 he lent Government twenty-five lakhs and made extensive arrangements for supplies. In the second Afghan War in 1842 another loan of five lakhs was granted by the Maharaja. In 1843 His Highness sent two guns and a thousand cavalry to co-operate with the British troops in quelling the disturbances in Kaithal State. On the outbreak of the first Sikh War in 1845 Maharaja Karam Singh sent a contingent of two thousand cavalry, two thousand infantry and two hundred zamboorchis for active service with the British Army, and undertook to furnish supplies, thus giving proof of his loyalty and devotion to Government.

Maharaja Karam Singh died in 1845, being succeeded by his son, Maharaja Narindar Singh. The Government, in recognition of the services rendered by the State in the first Sikh War, gave a portion of the territory confiscated from Nabha, yielding a revenue of Rs. 35,000, and a house at Hardwar belonging to the rebel Raja of Ladwa, to the State. In 1847 an additional grant of territory yielding a revenue of Rs. 10,000 annually, and a khilat, were granted to the Maharaja, at the same time his salute was raised to fifteen guns. Maharaja Narindar Singh rendered conspicuous services to the Government during the second Sikh War of 1849, also during the Mutiny. His practical aid during that time of trial may thus be summarised.

On the reception of the news of the Mutiny at Meerut and Delhi, and of the very doubtful attitude of the Native troops at Umballa, which reached Patiala about 10 o'clock on the night of 17th May 1857, His Highness made immediate preparations for a move, and despatched his elephants, camels and other transport to Kalka for the use of the European troops who were proceeding from Kasauli, Dagshai and Sabathu. Next morning, at the head of all his available troops, he marched to Loh-Seemli, a village close to Umballa, and after a consultation with Mr. (afterwards Sir Douglas) Forsyth, moved to Thanesar, having left detachments of cavalry and infantry for the protection of Umballa City and Cantonments. Kuar Dip Singh, brother of the Maharaja, held Thanesar with 1,300 men and 4 guns, whilst Karnal and the station of Umballa were held by troops, who also guarded the Grand Trunk Road from Karnal to Phillour. The King of Delhi sent a message to the Maharaja urging him to come over to his side, and promising rewards for so doing; this letter was handed to the Commissioner by His Highness. The Maharaja subsequently expressed a wish to lead a contingent personally to Delhi; but both the Commissioner and the Commander-in-Chief dissuaded him from this, urging that his presence in the Punjab was of the highest importance. Besides sending troops to Delhi, Karnal, Thanesar and Umballa, the Maharaja sent detachments to restore order in Sirsa, Rohtak, Hissar, Saharanpur and Jagadhri, at the request of the British authorities. On the revolt of the 10th Regiment of Cavalry at Ferozepur the Maharaja's troops followed them up, and in a skirmish which took place some of his men were killed and wounded. In his own territory the Maharaja furnished supplies and transport, and kept the road clear for all troops passing through from the Punjab to Delhi. All refugees, European ladies and gentlemen, from Sirsa, Rohtak and Hissar who came through Patiala were received with the greatest kindness and hospitality and were supplied with everything they required. The Maharaja gave a loan of eight lakhs to Government, and expressed his willingness to double this amount.

Most of the services of the Maharaja were rendered in Dholpur and Gwalior. Early in September, 1857, the combined insurgent forces of Indore and Gwalior entered the Dholpur State. Most of the Rana's troops and officials joined the rebels, who ravaged the district, defied the Chief's authority, and even threatened his life until he consented to their demands. At length they left Dholpur, taking with them the Rana's guns, and set out for Agra; but Dholpur remained in a state of anarchy, and the Chief was unable to restore order till, with the consent of the North-West and Punjab authorities, the Maharaja of Patiala sent there a force of two thousand men and two guns. Although Dholpur was tranquillized, the neighbouring States, particularly Gwalior, were in so disturbed a condition that the Patiala troops were directed to remain at Dholpur. Maharaja Jiaji Rao Sindhia, attended by his Minister, Sir Dinkar Rao, and three or four Sardars, fled to Dholpur on 2nd June, and were supplied with an escort of Patiala troops till they reached Agra. A British force then marched against the rebel army at Gwalior, and the Patiala forces were increased by every available man. All the ferries on the Chambal river were guarded by Patiala troops, and supplies were procured for the British army. A detachment of Patiala troops served under General Napier in the action at Alipur on 19th June, and attacked and routed the rebels who had already been defeated before Gwalior. A month later, at the request of Sir R. Hamilton, a Patiala detachment of six hundred infantry and three hundred horse was moved from Dholpur to Gwalior, and it remained doing excellent service at Isagarh, near Ujjain, and other places, reducing rebellious villages and acting as guards and escorts.

At the request of the Chief Commissioner the Maharaja sent a force of six hundred foot and two hundred horse, which was afterwards doubled in strength, to Jhajjar, to maintain order there; and at the request of the Oudh authorities eight hundred infantry and two hundred sowars were sent to that province. The entire Patiala troops employed in the British cause during 1857 comprised eight guns, 2,156 cavalry, 2,856 infantry, with 156 officers: that employed in the following year was 2 guns, 2,930 infantry, and 907 sowars, making a total force of 3,063 cavalry, 5,720 infantry, 156 officers and 10 guns.

Maharaja Narindar Singh's splendid services in connection with the Mutiny were duly acknowledged and rewarded by the Government with the gift of the Sovereign rights in the Narnaul division of the forfeited State of the Jhajjar Nawab. The sovereignty of pargana Kanaud of Jhajjar and the taluka of Khamanu were transferred to Patiala State in liquidation of the loans advanced to the British Government by the Maharaja during the Mutiny. The Bahadur Sardars were placed under the jurisdiction of the State. The number of trays of khilat was increased and the titles of Farzand-i-Khas, Daulat-i-Inglishia, Mansur-i-Zaman, Amir-ul-Umara Sri were conferred on His Highness in perpetuity. He was the first Indian Chief nominated on the Council of the Viceroy and Governor-General, and one of the first recipients of a Knighthood of the Star of India. His rule is memorable for the many works of public utility, reform and charity which he inaugurated. During the famine of 1861 the Maharaja distributed grain worth fifteen lakhs amongst his subjects, and granted large remissions of revenue. On the death of Maharaja Narindar Singh in 1862 the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab made the following remarks, expressed in a Gazette Extraordinary:

"His Honour laments the removal in the prime of life and usefulness of a Feudatory Prince, who, at the time of the Mutiny of the Native Army in 1857, performed the most eminent services to the Crown, and who administered the Government of his territories with exemplary wisdom, firmness and benevolence."

Maharaja Mahinder Singh succeeded to the gaddi; the chief incidents of his rule will be found recorded in Part III, page 5, of this work, as also the biography of his successor, Maharaja Rajinder Singh.

Maharaja Mahinder Singh's salute was increased from 15 to 17 guns in 1864 and the honour of G. C. S. I. was conferred upon him in 1870. At the request of Sir Henry Durand, Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab, he performed the opening ceremony of the Sutlej Bridge in 1870. He rendered valuable aid in suppressing the Kuka rising in 1871, which was publicly acknowledged by the Government. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales paid a visit to the Maharaja at Rajpura in 1875, and to commemorate the event the Albert Edward Mahinder Ganj was established at Rajpura.

Maharaja Rajinder Singh served with distinction on the staff of General Sir Edmund Elles, when he proceeded with his contingent to the frontier during the Momand and Tirah campaigns. During the Boxer rising in China, Maharaja Rajinder Singh offered the services of his troops to Government, but, much to his regret, there was no necessity for sending these troops.

For the war in South Africa the Maharaja sent a large number of trained remounts for the British cavalry; in fact, for over a century, whenever occasion has arisen, the Patiala State has always been ready to place all its troops and resources at the disposal of the British Government, and has thus earned a well merited name for conspicuous loyalty. Maharaja Rajinder Singh was invested with the insignia of a Knight Grand Commander of the Order of the Star of India by Lord Elgin in 1898. Since the time of Lord Mayo, every Viceroy has honoured the State with a visit.

Maharaja Rajinder Singh, like his predecessors, was generous and liberal minded and gave handsome donations, among which the following figures stand out prominently:

Rs. 55,000 to the Punjab University in honour of H. R. H. Prince Albert Victor's visit to Patiala in 1890, besides the sum of Rs. 25,000 which was contributed previously ; Rs. 1,62,000 to Khalsa College, Amritsar ; Rs. 20,000 to the Punjab Association, Lahore ; Rs. 30,000 to the Imperial Institute, London.

The present Maharaja succeeded in 1900, at his father's death. His Highness takes a keen interest in the administration of his State, and during his rule many reforms have been introduced. The first regular settlement of the State has been completed, and the Public Works, Accounts and Education Departments have been reorganized. Public buildings costing fifty-seven lakhs have been erected; water-works have been established in Patiala City, and an electric installation set up. Primary education has been made free throughout the State; the staff at the Mahinder College, where also education is free, has been strengthened; and a fine Sanitarium for consumptives was opened at Dharampur by His Excellency Lord Hardinge in 1911.

Handsome donations have been given by the present Maharaja, of which the following are prominent: Minto Memorial, Rs. 5,000; Dunlop Smith Memorial, Rs. 2,000; Victoria Memorial Hall, Calcutta, 1,00,000; Kangra Relief Fund, Rs. 10,000; Pasteur Institute, Kasauli, Rs. 5,000; King Edward Memorial, Punjab, Rs. 2,00,000. The Maharaja was present at the Coronation Durbar held in Delhi in 1903 and at the review he himself led his troops. His Highness was honoured with a visit from H. E. Lord Curzon in 1903; and on this occasion His Excellency unveiled the statue of Her Majesty, the late Queen-Empress Victoria. In November 1905 when His Highness was invited to meet His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales at Lahore, the visit was commemorated by the grant of one lakh of rupees to the Khalsa College, Amritsar, for founding a foreign scholarship. Their Royal Highness' safe return to England was commemorated by a donation of Rs. 50,000, half of which went to the Victoria Mayo High School for girls, Lahore, and the other half to Lady Minto's Fund for Nurses.

He contributed six lakhs of rupees towards the Endowment Funds of the Khalsa College, and the interest on that sum, Rs. 21,000, is annually paid to the said institution. Other annual grants to different institutions are: Rs. 1,800 per annum to the M.A.O. College, Aligarh; Rs. 100 per annum to the Lawrence Military Asylum, Sanawar; Rs. 100 per annum to the Leper Asylum, Sabathu. His Highness takes great interest and displays remarkable skill in shooting and manly sports. Cricket is his favourite game, and when the Indian cricket team went to England in May, 1911, he was Captain of the team. At the invitation of the Imperial Government he attended the Coronation Ceremony of Their Imperial Majesties the King-Emperor and the Queen-Empress in England, and was present at all the important functions connected with that august ceremony. He gave a donation of £ 8,000 for founding a Sikh Dharamsala in London, the opening ceremony of which was performed by him while in England.

His Highness was present at the Coronation Durbar of 1911, where he received many marks of the Royal favour, as well as his well-merited title.

Corporation as a member of the Joint Schools Committee. Sir Ibrahim is an ardent supporter of primary education. In order to improve the attendance at schools of Mohammadan boys and girls he approached the Government on the subject of introducing the reading of the Koran in schools. The reply of Government was sympathetic, but Sir Ibrahim had to face strong opposition in the Corporation; his object was, however, secured by a narrow majority. Sir Ibrahim is a member of the Managing Committee of the Anjuman-i-Islam, and President of the M. J. Khoja Reading-Room and Library. His work on the Improvement Trust of Bombay is well known. Sir Ibrahim was one of the first to bring to the notice of the Health Officer the circumstance that plague had broken out in Bombay, and as Chairman of the Voluntary Plague Committee of Umerkhadi Section he proved the success of the experiment of enlisting public help in grappling with this disease. Sir Ibrahim was nominated Member of the Legislative Council in 1899, and appointed Sheriff of Bombay in 1904. In 1907 he was created Companion of the Order of the Indian Empire, and in the same year was appointed as a representative on the Museum Conference held at Calcutta under the chairmanship of Sir Thomas Holland. On the occasion of the recent Coronation Durbar he received at the hands of His Majesty the honour of Knighthood. Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola is President of the Islam Gymkhana, and is a Member of the Orient Club, Bombay. Address: Bombay.

RAY, MAHARAJA, KSHAUNISH CHANDRA, of Krishnagar, Nuddea, belongs to the Nuddea Raj family, and is the only son of the late Maharaja Bahadur Kshitish Chandra Ray. He was born at Krishnagar on 29th October, 1890, and educated at home. The family trace their descent from Bhuttanarayan, a Kanauj chief, who founded a principality near Vikrampur, in Eastern Bengal. The first descendant of importance of this chief was Bhabanundo Majumdar, who is said to have founded the Nuddea Raj. He assisted the Moghal Emperor Akhbar in the subjugation of the Chief of Jessore; he also obtained fifteen parganas from Jahangir in 1606, together with the title of Raja. The most remarkable scion of the house was Kishan Chandra Ray, a great scholar and patron of the Arts. He was considered a leader of Hindu society in his day and played an important part in the establishment of the British power in Bengal. His advice was sought by the leading men of Murshidabad as to the best way of displacing Suraj-ud-Daula. For the services rendered by him Lord Clive conferred on him the title of Rajendra Bahadur: he also received a sword, and some of the guns used at Plassey. During Kishan Chandra's time the zemiqdari consisted of 84 parganas, with a revenue assessed at 6½ lakhs. At present the estate pays a revenue of Rs. 62,542, and its value is estimated at Rs. 2,17,790. The Maharaja received his title as a personal distinction on the occasion of the recent Coronation Durbar. He has also been accorded the privilege of the "private entree" by H. E. the Vicerory. He is eighth in descent from Kishan Chandra. Address: Krishnagar, Nuddea, Bengal.

RUSTAM ALI KHAN MANDAL, NAWAB BAHADUR, of Karnal, Pūnjab, is head of the section of the Mandals which Lord Lake found, in 1804, established on the eastern bank of the Jumna in certain tracts included in the modern districts of Meerut and Muzaffarnagar. They came from Samana, in Patiala, according to tradition, and several members of the clan are still to be found in that State, where they hold considerable grants of land. During the Maratha war the head of the clan at the time, whose name was Muhamdi Khan, assisted the British, and the family was subsequently transferred to Karnal. The head of the Mandal house, Nawab Ahmad Ali Khan, was of much assistance to the British during the Mutiny, and his services were duly acknowledged in a letter from Lord Canning to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab. In 1860 Nawab Ahmad Ali Khan was appointed Honorary Assistant Commissioner in the Karnal District. He died in 1867, being succeeded by his son, Nawab Azmat Ali Khan (whose biography will be found in Part III, page 72, of this work) who was granted the title of Nawab Bahadur in 1891. Nawab Rustam Ali Khan is half-brother to Nawab Azmat Ali Khan, and was born in 1863. He is a provincial durbari, and on the occasion of the recent Coronation Durbar was given the personal title of Nawab Bahadur. Address: Karnal, Punjab.

SWAMI DAYAL, RAJA SETH, of Moizuddinpur, was born in 1868, and educated at Sitapur High School. He belongs to a Jethmal family, members of which held high offices at Delhi under the Moghal Emperors. His ancestors, Seth Murli Manohar and Seth Sita Ram, assisted the British during the Mutiny, suffering much loss of property thereby, but after order was restored their services were handsomely rewarded.

Raja Swami Dayal has founded an Industrial School at Sitapur and a High School at Biswan at his own expense, and has inaugurated an Agricultural Bank in his talukdari. He is an Honorary Magistrate and Munsiff. His title, which is a personal one, was granted on the occasion of the recent Coronation Durbar. Address : Moizuddinpur, Sitapur District, U. P.

WALI-ULLAH KHAN, RAJA, was born in 1867 and is the third son of Raja Hamid-ullah Khan of Rehlu, and uncle of the late Raja Azim-ullah Khan, who lost his life in the memorable earthquake in the Kangra District in 1905. The Raja is the representative of the descendants of Raja Karam-ullah Khan, of the Kashmir family who were Rajas of Rajauri. The last ruling chief was Rahim-ullah Khan, who died in 1847. The possessions of the family came under the dominion of the Sikh chief, Gulab Singh, and the family migrated to Rehlu, in the Punjab, where they have become important. The family were originally Hindus, and their descent may be traced from Raja Jir Rao, a Jhiral Rajput of the stock of the Mahabharat Pandars. They probably changed their faith in the early days of the Mohammadan conquest, and appear to have been of material assistance to the Moghal rulers. Raja Mast Khan received lands with a revenue of half a lakh from Akhbar, and some years later Raja Taj Khan gave his daughter in marriage to Aurangzeb. This daughter's son was the Emperor Bahadur Shah. The prefix of Mirza, borne by younger members of the family, originated in this connection with the royal house. Since the annexation the family have always been loyal to the British, and Raja Hamid-ullah Khan furnished levies which behaved in an exemplary manner in Hoshiarpur, Kulu, Kangra and Dharmasala. In recognition of these services Raja Hamid-ullah Khan received a khilat and the title of Raja Bahadur. The present Raja received his title on the occasion of the recent Coronation Durbar : he has done good service as an Inspector of Police. Address : Rehlu, Kangra, Punjab.

and was highly respected as a religious man. It is recorded that late in life he took up a hermitage on the mountain of Balouri, where he died; his tomb is still in existence there. In 1654, an ancestor, Sheikh Sadre Jahan, came to India and was appointed a Kazi with full Criminal and Judicial powers over the Parganas of Okri and Daulatpur (at present included in the District of Gaya) by the Emperor Shah Jahan. The post of Kazi was hereditary and was enjoyed up to Kazi Rahmat-ullah alias Pir Ali. The Khan Bahadur's grandfather, Asad Ali, was made Kazi by the East India Company. He died in 1857. During the time of the Mutiny the Khan Bahadur's father, Kazi Ahmad Bakhsh, rendered conspicuous services to the British and was appointed Kazi of Parganas Okri and Ekil, in the Province of Behar; he died in 1869. The Khan Bahadur was only about two years old when his father died, and he then lived at Gaya with his maternal grandmother, widow of the late Munshi Syed Chiragh Ali Hashmi. The said Munshi Saheb had no son, but an only daughter, so his property was divided among his grandchildren, the Khan Bahadur and his two sisters. The Khan Bahadur is a good Persian and Arabic scholar and has a fine taste for poetry. In 1895 he was appointed an Honorary Magistrate and in 1897 received the honour of Khan Bahadur for his loyalty and public services and liberality. In 1900, when plague broke out at Gaya, he helped the Government officials to keep the disease out of the city, to such an extent that he received the Kaisar-i-Hind Silver Medal. He further received a Certificate of Honour on Their Majesties' Coronation day last year. He is an all round sportsman and has obtained many prizes for the same. He owns landed property yielding an annual income of forty thousand rupees.

His only son, Maulvi Kazi Anwar Ahmad Faruqi, was born on 21st of Moharram, 1310 Hijri. His mother, Hashmi Kadri, the only wife of Khan Bahadur Kazi Farzand Ahmad, is the daughter of Khan Bahadur Syed Abu Saiyid, a rich zemindar of Patna. Moulvi Anwar Ahmad is a man of public spirit and bids fair to turn out a good and useful man to his nation. Address: Gaya, Bengal.

After matriculating in 1877, Mr. Nanjappa went to Bangalore, where he passed the munsiffs' and pleaders' examinations. In 1881 he was enrolled as a pleader in the Coorg courts, and later rose to the position of Public Prosecutor and Government Pleader. He has been connected with all the public movements in Coorg for many years. As Vice-President of the Municipality, member of the Temple Committee and the Planters' Association his advice has been eagerly sought. His benefactions are numerous. Among these are a boys' school in his native village, a grant of Rs. 5,000 for founding scholarships in the Mercara girls' school, and a like sum towards a public park in Mercara. The success of the local water works is largely due to Mr. Nanjappa, who subscribed a substantial sum towards the cost. He retired from the post of Public Prosecutor in 1905 and has since devoted himself to his favourite pursuit of coffee growing, in which he has been eminently successful. His public services were recognized by the grant of a Certificate of Honour at the Durbar of 1902, and at the recent Coronation Durbar he received his well-merited title. Address: Mercara, Coorg, S. Mokarram Ali. He is descended from a good family of Iraqi Mussalmans, who trace their descent from Abu Bakar Siddiq, the first Kaliph. His ancestors migrated to India, and several of them obtained high office under the Mohammadan rulers. In the reign of Akhbar, Shaikh Mohammad Abdul Ghafur Khan, one of the Maulvi's ancestors, was sent on a mission to Nepal; he was noted for his statesmanship and administrative abilities. The descendants of this minister settled in the district now known as Gorakhpur, and gave to their new domicile the name of Lar, derived from their ancestral province of Laristan in Persia. Maulvi Abdul Aziz commenced the practice of his profession in 1885. His abilities soon brought him to the front of the local Bar. He has found time to devote to many movements of public utility and beneficence, in all of which he has taken a keen and active interest. The successful working of the Kasia Central Co-operative Bank, which was started in 1902, is chiefly due to his untiring efforts as Managing Director, and he received a sanad for these services in 1910. His services were also freely placed at the disposal of the public during the famine in 1908, and he exerted himself to great purpose in connection with the King Edward Memorial Fund. STATE OFFICIALS

DAYA KISHEN KAUL, DIWAN, C. I. E., Rai Saheb, Judicial Minister of Alwar State, is the youngest son of the late Raja Suraj Kaul. He belongs to one of the oldest Brahmin families in Kashmir. His grandfather, Pundit Lal Kaul, was confirmed by Maharaja Ranjit Singh in the enjoyment of a jagir of the annual value of Rs. 17,000, situated in Kashmir, which had been conferred on his ancestors by the Moghal Emperors, and continued to them by the Kabul Amirs. Pundit Lal Kaul was one of the Amir's ministers in Kabul, and subsequently entered the service of Maharaja Ranjit Singh. He accompanied Misra Diwan Chand's expedition to Kashmir in 1819, when that country was reduced by the Maharaja's forces. He was afterwards Governor of Multan, then in command of a cavalry regiment he saw much active service, his last fight being the battle of Sobraon. At the annexation in 1848 he was granted a life pension. Pundit Suraj Kaul, father of Daya Kishen Kaul was only sixteen when his father died. Sir John Lawrence took much interest in him, and subsequently appointed him Extra-Assistant Commissioner. In 1883 he was sent to Baluchistan as Political Agent. For his good work in that country he was given the title of Rai Bahadur, and later he was given a C. I. E. In 1888 his services were lent to Kashmir State, where he became Financial Minister and Revenue Member of Council. In 1897 he was appointed to the Viceroy's Legislative Council, and two years later he took his seat on the Punjab Council. He was given the personal title of Raja in 1901, and died in the same year at the age of sixty-eight. His sons have all distinguished themselves. The eldest, Rai Saheb Bal Kishen Kaul (a notice of whom appears in Part III, page 140, of this work) is an Assistant Surgeon, and Lecturer in the Lahore Medical College. The second son, Rai Bahadur Hari Kishen Kaul, M. A., whose biography is to be found in Part III, page 128, of this work, is a Deputy Commissioner in the Punjab. Diwan Daya Kishen Kaul was for some time Private Secretary to the Maharaja of Kashmir, and received the title of Rai Saheb. He was created C. I. E. on 26th June, 1908. Address : Alwar, Rajputana.

SABNIS, RAGHUNATH VYANKAJI, B. A., Rao Bahadur, Diwan of Kolhapur State, was born on 1st April 1857, and educated at Kolhapur High School and Elphinstone College, Bombay. He is a Chandraseniya Kayastha Prabhu; and belongs to a family which migrated from the Konkan in the time of the Maratha supremacy. In recognition of services rendered the members of the family were honoured with hereditary military service in connection with the Gajendragod Fort, under Bijapur. Diwan R. V. Sabnis entered the Bombay Educational Department in 1878, and rose to be Deputy Educational Inspector. In 1893 he became tutor to H. H. the Chhatrapati Maharaja of Kolhapur. When His Highness was invested with full powers Mr. Sabnis was selected to be Huzur Chitnis. In 1896 he was appointed Chief Revenue Officer of Kolhapur; he then resigned the British service. In 1898 he was appointed to the post he now holds with credit. In 1905 he was honoured with the title of Rao Bahadur, and the Maharaja has also recognized his services by grants of landed property. He has acted as Plague and Famine Commissioner in the State, and as Director of Public Instruction he has assisted His Highness in spreading education in his State. He was presented to the late King-Emperor at his Coronation in 1902. He is a member of the Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, the Royal Society of Arts, and President of the Kolhapur Society for the Encouragement of the Depressed Classes. Recreations: Tennis, riding. Address: Kolhapur State, Bombay Presidency.

MOHAMMAD NIYAZ ALI, Kazi, Hafiz, Diwan of Jaisalmer State, was born in February, 1866, and educated at the Durbar School, Sirohi, Moradabad Islamia Madrassah and the Government School at Ajmere. He commenced his public life in 1882, and held various posts until 1892, when he was appointed Assistant Magistrate in Jaisalmer State. In 1901 he was appointed Superintendent of Census Operations in the State. In 1905 he was posted to Mount Abu as Tahsildar; in 1906 he was made Durbar Vakil in the Courts of the Resident in Western Rajputana. He has been many times rewarded by the State and by the Government for the faithful discharge of his various duties. In 1911 he was appointed Diwan of the State. Address: Jaisalmer, Rajputana.

SARUP NARAIN, Rai Saheb, Assistant Settlement Officer, Dholpur and Karauli States, was born in 1866. His ancestors held honourable posts in the Court of the Kings of Delhi, and the family is renowned for the possession of the title of "Bahadur." The Pundit joined Government service in the Gurdaspur Settlement operations and soon rose to be Settlement Officer, and later Wazir of Poonch State, Kashmir. His whole-hearted energy and zeal in ameliorating the condition of the zemindars enabled him, during Lord Curzon's administration, to win the personal distinction of "Rai Saheb" and leave his name as a household word in Poonch State. He is known and admired in Kashmir, the North-West Frontier Province and the Eastern Rajputana States. His work, "Guide to Settlement Training," was by special permission dedicated to Sir R. M. Dane, and the second edition to Sir Louis Dane, Lieutenant Governor of the Punjab. The Pundit is now Assistant Settlement Officer in the joint settlement of Dholpur and Karauli States, in which post he has been doing excellent work for four years. His services have recently been asked for by the Gwalior Durbar. Address: Dholpur, Rajputana.
